Breaking Through The Clouds: The First Women's National Air Derby
By Heather A. Taylor

This is the inspiring true story of 20 women who raced across America in 1929. With just a compass and a road map to guide them, Amelia Earhart and 19 other brave pilots defied convention by taking to the skies and racing across the country for the first Women’s National Air Derby. Facing cultural stereotypes, mechanical failures, threats of sabotage, navigational challenges, and endless chicken dinners, the women became pioneering legends in aviation. Their story is inspiring to anyone who has the courage to follow their own dreams. Produced, directed, and written by WIFV member Heather A.

Invisible Me
By Debbi Mack

Military brat and albino, 13-year-old Portia Maddox has bounced from school to school, always an outsider. So when Denise Laughton, the most popular girl at her junior high, asks for her help in exchange for an invite to Denise's big birthday party, Portia jumps at the chance to go. But there's a catch: Portia must spy on Randy, Denise's boyfriend, to find out whether he's cheating on her.

Portia's spying, however, unearths a tangled web of duplicity, hidden agendas, and family secrets. And when Portia's budding friendship with social outcast Judy interferes with her plans to endear herself to Denise, Portia must decide who her real friends are.

It is available at Amazon and Smashwords.

A Community of Gardeners and Carousel of Memories
By Cintia Cabib

_A Community of Gardeners_ is a one-hour documentary that explores the vital role of seven community gardens in Washington, DC and shows how these green spaces are transforming people's lives, their communities, and their environment. The film also traces the history of community gardening in the United States, from the potato patch farms of the late 19th century, to the victory gardens of World War II, to community gardening's current renaissance. This is the perfect holiday gift for anyone who is interested in gardening, urban farming, and locally-grown food. Purchase the DVD here.

The documentary _Carousel of Memories_ captures Washingtonians recollections of the antique Dentzel carousel at Glen Echo Park and explores the carousel's many roles over time, from an amusement park ride, to a symbol for the civil rights movement, to an endangered work of art. This is a wonderful gift for anyone who loves carousels and local history. Purchase the DVD here.

The Way We Love Now, A Poetic Trilogy Capturing The Heart's Journey To Find True Love
"I believe that life's essence is all about love, starting from self-love. And that if we are to transform the way we experience intimate relationships, we must be willing to visit the depths of our psyche to learn who we are and what we truly long for." Liliane Mavridara  _The Way We Love Now_ is an exploration of this journey, through poetry, and what it takes to find the kind of love we want to live.
