BREAKING THROUGH THE CLOUDS

By Heather A. Taylor

The inspiring true story of 20 women, including Amelia Earhart, who raced across America in 1929. This award-winning documentary is currently airing on PBS. It was directed, produced, and written by Heather A. Taylor.

With just a compass and a road map to guide them, Amelia Earhart and 19 other brave pilots defied convention by taking to the skies and racing across the country for the first Women's National Air Derby. Facing cultural stereotypes, mechanical failures, threats of sabotage, navigational challenges, and endless chicken dinners, the women became pioneering legends in aviation. Their story is inspiring to anyone who has the courage to follow their own dreams.

The DVD is $25 and available for purchase here. It is also available on Vimeo.

Books

Elizabeth Bromwell: Chronicles of an Expat Spy

By Kathryn Raaker

Elizabeth Bromwell: Chronicles of an Expat Spy, book one of a series in progress, is now available on Amazon or KindleUnlimited. Kathryn Raaker, syndicated host of television and radio, brings us Elizabeth Bromwell, a woman from humble beginnings and unassuming spouse of an expatriate businessman. But before long, Elizabeth's talents are recognized by the U.S. Intelligence Services: it was in her blood all along!

Sabra the Long-legged Goofy (mixed) Saluki

By Nina Halper

Based on the true story of the real Sabra, a Saluki-mix rescued from Israel in 2006 and raised in DC, this children's book - brought to life with colorful and comical illustrations - takes you on a heart-warming journey as Sabra the Long-legged Goofy (mixed) Saluki grows from a scrawny puppy into a gentle giant who captures attention everywhere he goes with his large size, soulful eyes and unusual looks. Nina Halper supports animal rescue and rights organizations and will use Sabra's story to promote animal adoption. Order here

Three Books by Sharon Burtner

ROSENWALD is a documentary on the incredible story of how businessman and philanthropist Julius Rosenwald joined with African-American communities in the South to build schools for them during the early part of the 20th century. This historical partnership as well as the modern-day attempts to maintain or reconfigure the schools is a great dramatic story, yet too little-known.

The DVD comes with 39 bonus features, an online teaching guide and director's commentary.

The 2-disc DVD set is $36 and available for purchase here. Other films and related products from the Ciesla Foundation are available here.
