President's Message

Dear WIFV Members and Friends,

This is a difficult message for me because, since COVID and the death of my husband, I've done as little as possible to celebrate the holidays. Usually, I go visit my son and family in Chicago and borrow a little of their Christmas. But now, I'm supposed to give you all wisdom and encouragement to start the new year.

2025 has set the stage for dismal messages. Federal funding for the arts was largely eliminated. Foreign aid was also cut, including funding for health programs, food, schools and medicine. The US pulled back from most environmental initiatives, putting our planet at increased risk of natural disasters like wildfires, flooding and heat waves. The AI revolution accelerated, sucking up huge amounts of energy and transforming industries, amidst increasing controversy. The Federal government also abandoned DEI, making women once again the lesser-favored sex.

In spite of all this, WIFV is a bright light, continuing to serve a vibrant Mid-Atlantic media-making community with: Mentorship, Professional Development programs including ScriptDC, Wednesday Ones, Roundtables, Narrative Script Development and Documentary Development Fellowships. Then there is networking at the Women of Vision Awards, Coffees, Holiday Party, Open House, and Film Club plus keeping the community connected

Send Your News & Photos

The deadline for Members in the News is the 10th of the month. Send an article (100 words or so) and a photograph or link to director@wifv.org. You can see past issues here. The deadline for the monthly newsletter is the 20th of the month.

We welcome receiving photos of you at work - writing, filming, acting, and supporting colleagues. Send your photos to director@wifv.org. Please provide a project name and a photo credit.

Kudos from Google!

WIFV has been recognized as a Top 10 of 2025 Capitol Hill Award Winner in the Non-profit organization category - an honor based on verified data from Google Reviews as analyzed and certified by BusinessRate.

with MediaMaker Spotlight podcasts, Missives, and Newsletters.

Projects in the Fiscal Sponsorship program are finding audiences and success. HOLDING LIAT from Meridian Hill Pictures follows an Israeli-American family as it copes with fear, trauma and grief in the wake of the 2023 Hamas attacks and kidnappings. The film is now in the short list for Feature Documentary Oscar recognition after winning awards at festivals from Berlin, Hamptons, Hong King and DocAviv. RITE OF PASSAGE, DOUEN, and EYES ON EVIL have all had successful crowdfunding campaigns with Seed&Spark. AIN'T NO BACK TO A MERRY-GO-ROUND had an extended run at the Avalon Theatre, is streaming on Kinema, continues in-person screenings and educational outreach. Many WIFV-member produced programs have been broadcast by public television stations across the country. We look forward to announcing and celebrating your many successes in 2026!

Media-making is important even if one doesn't celebrate the holidays or have much hope for America. Movies can entertain and provide an escape, but also have a unique ability to educate, raise awareness of social issues, challenge prevailing narratives, and inspire change. WIFV's support for media makers enables the telling of diverse stories by voices who might otherwise be silenced.

Thank you for making these successes possible. We look forward to working for your success in 2026.

HOLDING LIAT Oscars® Shortlist

Meridian Hill Pictures is honored to announce that HOLDING LIAT directed by Brandon Kramer and produced by Lance Kramer was just named to the Oscars® Shortlist for Best Feature Documentary in the 98th Academy Awards. This marks a major milestone for the film, particularly as it is an independent project without the backing of a major streamer or distributor. This is also the culmination of a massive grassroots effort to hold 96 in-person screenings in 18 countries and 50 cities since the world premiere at the Berlinale when the film was awarded Best Documentary. "This accomplishment was only possible thanks to the hundreds of people who supported us along the way when making the film, and the thousands of people who came to screenings over the past year to experience the film firsthand." Diving into the Patience & Art of Underwater Cinematography

Start January with “Exploring Identity Through Film with Sierra Urich” (Ep. 115) In this episode, host Tara Jabbari interviews Sierra Urich, an interdisciplinary visual artist and filmmaker whose documentary, JOONAM explores themes of identity, displacement, and the immigrant experience. Sierra shares insights from her festival circuit journey, the significance of her family's story, and the challenges of filmmaking in an authoritarian context. The conversation highlights the universal nature of longing for home and the importance of cultural narratives in connecting diverse audiences. Sierra emphasizes the power of persistence in the independent film distribution process and the value of networking at film festivals. Learn more about JOONAM here.

January 18th -“Diving into the Patience & Art of Underwater Cinematography” (Ep. 116)

Award-winning underwater cinematographer Roger Horrocks joins host Candice Bloch to discuss what it takes to capture the amazing underwater scenes we see in epic nature documentaries. Roger has worked on some of the most ambitious and acclaimed documentaries ever created, including MY OCTUPUS TEACHER, OUR PLANET, BLUE PLANET 2, and OUR OCEANS. These projects have taken him all over the world, and earned numerous awards, including an Oscar for Best Documentary Feature, The Critics Choice Award for Best Cinematography, and a BAFTA for Best Cinematography. Roger shares about his journey into the world of underwater filmmaking and the unique challenges and techniques involved in capturing the beauty of life below the surface. He emphasizes the importance of safety, the specialized equipment used, and the patience required during long shoots. Roger also reflects on the lessons learned from the underwater world and the significance of crew dynamics in filmmaking. You'll come away with an even greater respect and appreciation of the skill and commitment it takes to bring audiences these incredible glimpses into our oceans and their inhabitants. Mentorship Deadlines - January 9 and 15

WIFV Mentorship Application - MENTORS - Jan 9

Applications are now being accepted for creative professionals willing to serve as a mentor to others, please click here. Mentorship engagements usually require one hour per month virtually via Zoom. The WIFV mentorship program has been tremendously effective in its first few years and the committee's goal for 2026 is to increase the number of mentorship pairings to serve even more WIFV members.

Deadline for applications: January 9, 2026. More info and application here.

WIFV Mentorship Application - MENTEES - Jan 15

Applications are now being accepted from WIFV members seeking to be paired with an industry professional. You can apply to be paired with a mentor for a specific project or for general career mentorship. Whether you're an emerging filmmaker or an experienced professional pivoting to a new area of focus, everyone can benefit through meaningful mentorship engagement.

Deadline for applications: January 15, 2026 More info and application here.

Documentary Roundtable

Brought to you by:

Impact Producing - Jan 12

The Documentary Roundtable begins the new year addressing the relevancy of Impact Producing, using the documentary IMMUTABLE as our launching pad.

IMMUTABLE is a feature doc focusing on DC students from the Washington Urban Debate League. Finding your voice in a world which chooses not to hear you is a daunting task for any teen. These young debaters learn to find their voices with the extra challenges of post Covid isolation, housing instability and neurodivergence .

Joining us will be Director/Producer Gabriel London. As a partner in the social impact creative agency, Found Object, London has directed purpose-driven campaigns on issues such as veteran's health, clean energy and climate change. His work on campaigns for Viacom — Spike's Veterans Operation Wellness (VOW) — and New York State (Reforming the Energy Vision or "REV4NY") combined storytelling with social activation around major policy issues of the day.
